Upcoming Event: "The History of International Development" feat. Khalid Ahmed

7:00PM-8:30PM on Tuesday, September 20th
GB 304 (Galbraith Building)

Come join us for our inaugural member learning session featuring special guest, Khalid Ahmed, where we delve into the history of international development as we know it!

Khalid Ahmed is currently pursuing a PhD within the department of political science at U of T. His research centers around comparative development politics and public policy in third world countries, with a particular focus on civil wars, the ways in which they are resolved, and the process of rebuilding that follows their end.

EWB UofT PRESENTS:

JUNIOR FELLOWSHIP RECRUITMENT

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED FROM
OCTOBER 1ST - OCTOBER 14TH

Junior Fellowship Recruitment

You can make an impact. You can be at the forefront of a global development mission. Learn, innovate, and make a difference against poverty.

The Engineers Without Borders Junior Fellowship supports you with the opportunity and necessary training to target core social issues around the globe. Following 6 months of preparation in an immersive learning environment, Junior Fellows spend a 3.5-month period over the course of the summer working individually with one of EWB's ventures in Canada or Africa, or with an EWB Incubator team. Directly collaborating with EWB Canada, our parent organization, you will gain unique exposure to the EWB approach to development. For more information, visit: <https://www.ewb.ca/ideas/junior-fellowship-program-jf>

EWB U of T's Junior Fellowship applications will be open from October 1st to October 14th.

Information sessions where you'll have the opportunity to learn more about the program and ask questions to our past Junior Fellows will be happening on the following day from 7:00PM-8:00PM:

- Friday, September 23rd; BA 2179 (Bahen Centre for Information Technology)

EWB UofT is hunting for its next game-changing, systemic-thinking, problem-solving guru. Will this be you?

On behalf of EWB U of T's Junior Fellowship and Member Learning lead(s),

Ghazal Sondhi
VP Marketing 2016-2017
