The Prodigal Son Returns... for Tea, Snacks, & Chats

7:00-8:30PM on Tuesday, October 18th
BA 2159 (Bahen Centre for Information Technology)

To kick off our Tea, Snacks, & Chats series, we are delighted to welcome home our former EWB U of T president and current Drake superfan, Ashkan Parcham-Kashani.

Since having graduated as a 1T5 EngSci, Ashkan has made the move to Silicon Valley, where he works as a software engineer at Primer, Inc. On Tuesday, in addition to catching up with EWBers old and new, Ashkan will be recounting his journey navigating the ups and downs of university and providing an ear (and possibly a shoulder to cry on) to current students.

Keep an eye on our Facebook page for more details regarding this event!
